

BRAUNSTONE TOWN COUNCIL

OFFICER DECISION TAKEN UNDER DELEGATED POWERS

APPOINTMENT TO OUTSIDE BODY VACANCY: SHAKESPEARE PARK SPORTS PAVILION MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

17th NOVEMBER 2023

Background to the Decision

Following the redevelopment of Shakespeare Park, the Council made the decision to license the management of the Pavilion to a Management Association made up of representatives of the sports clubs and the Council.

In accordance with the articles of association of the Shakespeare Park Sports Pavilion Management Association, the Council can appoint two representatives to serve on the Management Association Committee.

Council on 18th May 2023 appointed Councillor Sam Fox-Kennedy and Councillor Sam Maxwell (Council Minute 6127(c)).

On 14th November 2023, Councillor Sam Fox-Kennedy tendered her resignation, due to competing commitments. Therefore, there is a vacancy for a Councillor representative.

Following consultation with the Leader of the Labour Group, the group of the previous appointee, Councillor Imran Uddin was nominated to fill the vacancy.

Authority for Decision

Delegation to Officers 31, allows the Chief Executive & Town Clerk "To make appointments to outside bodies to fill vacancies which arise during the course of a Council year following nomination by the Group Leader for the group of the previous appointee and to confirm nominations to sub-groups, in the case of outside bodies which require nomination to a sub-group, following consultation with the Council's appointed representative".

Decision

That Councillor Imran Uddin be appointed to fill the Council vacancy on the Committee of the Shakespeare Park Sports Pavilion Management Association.

Approved By:

Darren Tilley

Date: 17th November 2023

Reason for Decision

To ensure appointments were made where there were requests for the Town Council to be represented and to ensure that Councillors had the opportunity to receive feedback and engage with the work of outside bodies.
